How the plan works

Cover depends on the Plan applied for.

Funeral Cover

Pays for funeral and other once-off final expenses.

Double Accident Cover

Receive double payout if you or your loved ones pass away in an accident.

Triple Accident Cover

Receive triple payout if you or your loved ones pass away in an accident.

Memorial Cover

Pays an amount from R10 000 to help honour the memory of your loved ones when they pass away. This can help to buy a tombstone or other symbols of remembrance.

Grocery Cover

If you or your spouse pass away, this will pay from R1 000 for six months to help beneficiaries with grocery expenses.

No waiting period

If you had previous funeral cover for yourself and your loved ones, you may not have a waiting period.

Cash Back

Receive a cash back amount every three years while you are paying premiums.

Escalations

You can choose to increase the cover amount by increasing the premium every year. This is to help you keep up with the rising cost of burying a loved one.

Third-party value-add services

Burial Repatriation

The Burial Repatriation covers the cost to transport the deceased person from a funeral home to a burial place of choice within South Africa. It also pays for a family member to travel with the deceased, including overnight accommodation if needed.
